394. Sri G. CHANDRAKANTH (Bidar).—

Will the Minister for Development and Co-operation be pleased to state :—

(a) whether the Taluk Development Board, Bidar has been dissolved;

(b) if so, when and why;

(c) if dissolved, the steps taken to reconstitute the same ?

A.—Sri P. M. NADGOUDA (Minister for Development and Co-operation).—

(a) Yes.

(b) On 26th November 1966. Since the sanctioned term of one year from 26th November 1965 expired on 25th November 1966.

(c) It is under consideration of Government.

Sri G. CHANDRAKANTH.—May I know what exactly is the reason for the dissolution of the Taluk Development Board ?

† Sri P. M. NADGOUDA.—After the reorganisation of the Basava Kalyan Taluk, these three Taluk Development boards have been dissolved and new block advisory committees have been appointed by the Government.

Sri G. CHANDRAKANTH.—Are these block advisory committees constituted as per law ?

Sri P. M. NADGOUDA.—They are not treated as Taluk Development Boards. They are treated as advisory Ad-hoc Committees.

Sri G. CHANDRAKANTH.—The Taluk Development Boards have been actually dissolved about 2 years back. May I know what steps have been taken to reconstitute them ?

Sri P. M. NADGOUDA.—There will be general election to the Taluk Boards and those elections will be held in due course of time.

Sri J. P. SARWESH.—In the case of Taluk Boards which are functioning all throughout the State, elections are postponed. Is it legal ?

Sri P. M. NADGOUDA.—I may bring to the notice of the Hon'ble House that we have passed the Abrogation of the Continuance of elections where provision has been made for the holding of elections.

Sri DIGAMBARA RAO B. KALMANKAR.—You stated that these taluka development committees are formed. May I know what was the basis of forming these taluka committees and on what basis the representatives are taken to that committee?

Sri P. M. NADGOUDA.—They are only ad hoc committees constituted on the basis of the recommendations of the appropriate authorities. They are not treated as taluka development Boards.

Sri G. CHANDRAKANTH.—You said that taluk advisory boards constituted are expected to adviss. I want to know whether the advice given by this board is carrying any legal sanctity.

Sri P. M. NADGOUDA.—It is in the nature of an advisory committee. It has no statutory status. They are in the nature of advisory committees and they give advice.
